BELEIVING IS BEING CENTER!

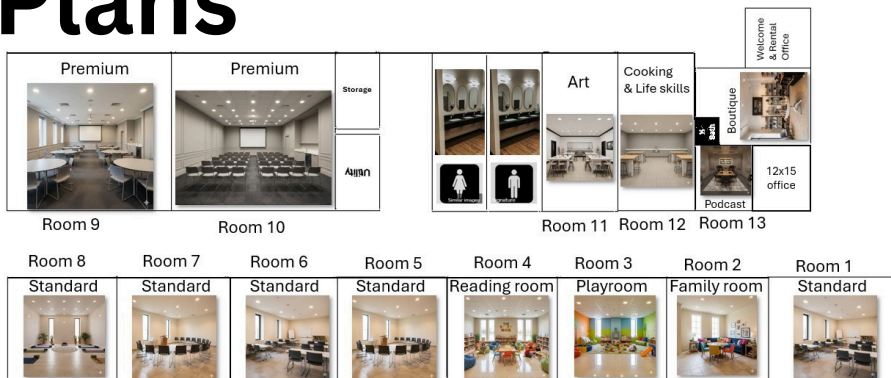

Our nearly 10,000 square foot building is vacant and ready to be transformed into the Believing is Being Center – a space where various organizations and volunteers can come together to provide services to the community – Art classes, life skills, tutoring, counseling, fellowship, and mentoring.

We already have people ready to donate their time and skills to run these programs, but we need the space.

OUR GOAL IS TO HAVE IT COMPLETED
